The Maryland Parent Involvement Matters Award

The Maryland Parent Involvement Matters Award is an annual award for parents (and others with legal responsibility for a child) whose exemplary contributions to public education have led to improvements for Maryland’s public school children, teachers, schools, programs, and/or policies. The award was created by the Maryland State Department of Education to highlight the positive impact parents have on public schools and to encourage all parents to get involved in whatever way they can.

Areas of Parent Involvement

1. Communicating
   Fostering communication that impacts the school community

2. Volunteering
   Recruiting or organizing volunteers, or supporting school activities, both internal and external

3. Learning
   Organizing or coordinating learning activities that reinforce homework or classroom skills

4. Collaborating with Community
   Coordinating resources and services for the school community, which could include fundraisers that would enhance a school’s services or environment, or coordinating resources or services from the school community that may serve an external community

5. Decision Making
   Participating on decision-making committees, or in programs that advocate system or policy changes, or serving as a representative for the school or education community

Nomination Deadline

Completed nomination packets must be postmarked by: Thursday, January 31, 2013

To learn more about the program and how previous winners were involved, go to www.MarylandPublicSchools.org/pima/.
Eligibility

To be considered for the Maryland Parent Involvement Matters Award, nominees must:

1. Be a parent, which includes a natural parent, an adoptive parent, a legal guardian, a person acting as a parent of a child such as a relative or a stepparent with whom a child lives, or any other person primarily responsible for the child’s welfare.

2. Have a child in a Maryland public school.

3. Not be an employee of the Maryland public school system or the Maryland State Department of Education.
   - Any person who is paid by a school or by the school system (i.e. substitute teacher, interpreter, Board member, consultant, etc.) is not eligible to be nominated.

4. Have conducted or participated in the project for which he/she is nominated within the last 24 months.

5. If a parent was previously nominated but was not selected as a semifinalist, finalist, or a State winner, the parent can be nominated again if the parent meets the eligibility criteria.

Criteria

To qualify for the award, the nominee shall:

1. Be a consistent advocate of public education.

2. Have had a significant, positive impact on public education with his/her creativity, innovation, and/or commitment at the school, district, or state level in one or more of the following areas:
   - Communicating
   - Volunteering
   - Learning
   - Collaborating with Community
   - Decision Making

Selection Process

After reviewing all completed nomination submissions, judges will select 24 semifinalists—one parent from each of the 23 counties in Maryland and one parent from Baltimore City. A second group of judges will review the 24 semifinalists’ nominations and select five finalists for the statewide award. A final group of judges will interview the five finalists and recommend one to be the statewide winner.

An award celebration will be held in Spring 2013 to recognize all 24 semifinalists. At the celebration, the names of the finalists and the statewide winner will be announced.

Opportunities for Winners

After the celebration, semifinalists, finalists, and the statewide winner will have many opportunities to be recognized and to promote parent involvement, such as:

- Speaking at educational events and conferences.
- Appearing at Maryland State Board of Education and/or Local Board of Education meetings.
- Participating on educational task forces and/or committees.
- Participating in a “best practices” publication and/or Web site that will serve to inspire parents as well as give them practical advice.

Nominations

Completed nomination packages must be postmarked by: Thursday, January 31, 2013

All nomination packages must be mailed to:

Maryland State Department of Education
