ORAL ARGUMENT

Ms. Kameen explained the procedures by which the Board hears oral arguments and introduced the following persons:

Lori Branch-Cooper, Esq.
Representing the Baltimore City Board of School Commissioners

v.

Keith Zimmerman, Esq.
Representing Deborah Price

BALTIMORE CITY AGREED-ON MAINTENANCE OF EFFORT (MOE) WAIVER REQUEST

Ms. Kameen explained that the Board is being asked to hold a public hearing on an Agreed Upon Maintenance of Effort (MOE) Waiver Request jointly filed by the City of Baltimore and the Baltimore City Board of School Commissioners. She explained that the city school system used an incorrect enrollment number to calculate the city’s MOE and that the city appropriated an additional $2,925,582 for Fiscal Year 2013. She further explained that the request seeks reduction in recurring costs to reduce the increased MOE funding level caused by the error.

Dr. Dukes introduced Andrew Kleine, Budget Director for the City of Baltimore and Victor De La Paz, CFO for the Baltimore City Public School System to provide testimony.

Mr. Kleine reported that the error will be corrected beginning in 2015.

Mr. De La Paz concurred with Mr. Kleine noting that BCPSS is “comfortable with this.”

In response to questions by Mr. Giammo, Mr. Kleine reported that the error occurred in the winter of 2012 and was identified in June of 2013. He explained that this request is part of a larger agreement between the parties. Dr. Dukes reported that they are working with legal counsel on this matter.

Ms. Staton acknowledged and applauded the two groups for coming together and working on a collaborative solution.

No other parties had registered to provide comment.

Dr. Dukes said that the Board will discuss this matter during its Executive Session.
COMAR 13A.03.02 GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS FOR PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOLS (AMEND) PERMISSION TO PUBLISH

Dr. Dukes recommended that the Board grant permission to publish proposed amendments to COMAR 13A.03.02 Graduation Requirements for Public High Schools.

Dr. Jack Smith provided highlights of the proposed changes explaining that some of the revisions are technical and some are editorial. He reported on the following proposed changes:

- Mathematics courses added
- Dual enrollment tuition payment requirements updated
- Retest opportunities
- Reporting student performance
- Special education changes

He noted that the change in student reporting requirements was amended based on concerns expressed by the Board regarding the practice followed by some local schools systems in recording on student transcripts that students failed to pass the Maryland High School Assessment and noting that they had completed a Bridge Plan in that assessment area. Under the proposed new reporting requirements, it should only be noted on the student transcript that the High School Assessment requirement was successfully met.

In response to a question by Ms. Eberhart about the combined score option, Dr. Smith said that student transcripts will reflect the term “meeting the requirement.” Ms. Eberhart requested that something be noted in the regulation to this intent and Ms. Kameen agreed to add language to the proposed regulation to include the combined score option.

In response to a concern expressed by Ms. Sidhu about tuition payments for college courses for Free and Reduced Meals (FARMS) students only, Dr. Lowery said that the term “free and appropriate education” refers to graduation requirements for K-12 curricula only. Dr. Dukes said, “We need further discussion about this. We can look at our legislative agenda for next year.” In response to a question by Ms. Eberhart, Dr. Dukes said that tuition payments can be a local education agency (LEA) decision. Dr. Smith said that the law requires an MOU between the local school system and the local college and that the Department is currently collecting data on this issue.

Upon motion by Mr. Smith, seconded by Dr. Gates, and with unanimous agreement, the Board approved permission to publish the proposed amendments to COMAR 13A.03.02 Graduation Requirements for Public High Schools. (In Favor – 11)

COMAR 13A.02.06. GENERAL FINANCIAL AID TO LOCAL SCHOOL SYSTEMS (AMEND) PERMISSION TO PUBLISH

Dr. Dukes recommended the Board grant permission to publish proposed amendments to COMAR 13A.02.06 General Financial Aid to Local School Systems. She introduced Kathy Oliver, Assistant State Superintendent, Division of Career and College Readiness, to discuss these amendments.

Ms. Oliver provided a historical background on state aid to LEAs for students enrolled full time in a public school "early college program." She explained that this amendment would establish regulatory authority for MSDE to recognize all registered public school students also enrolled full time in state-approved institutions of higher education and receiving both high school and college credit for college courses completed. She further explained that this will allow LEAs to claim full time equivalent (FTE) State Aid for those students.

Upon motion by Dr. Finan, seconded by Ms. Staton, and with unanimous agreement, the Board granted permission to publish proposed amendments to COMAR 13A.02.06 General Financial Aid to Local School Systems. (In Favor – 11)

PSTEB PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO COMAR 13A.12.04.02, ASSISTANTS IN ADMINISTRATION AND SUPERVISION AND COMAR 13A.12.04.02, SUPERINTENDENT

The President introduced Jean Satterfield, Assistant State Superintendent, Division of Educator Effectiveness, to brief the Board on changes proposed by the Professional Standards and Teacher Education Board (PSTEB) to COMAR 13A.12.04.02 Assistants in Administration and Supervision and COMAR 13A.12.04.02 Superintendent. Dr. Dukes reminded Board members that if they have concerns regarding either or both of these proposals, the Board has the option of requesting a Joint Conference Committee with PSTEB to discuss its concerns.

Ms. Satterfield explained that these proposed changes allow superintendents to request certification for individuals serving in non-instructional administrative positions and requires that superintendents must have prior teaching experience. She noted that these are "minimum competencies."

In response to a question at addressed to Dr. Lowery from Dr. Dukes regarding the Department's position on the proposed revisions, Dr. Lowery responded "We are pleased."

CURRICULUM UPDATE: NEXT GENERATION SCIENCE STANDARDS

The Superintendent called on Dr. Henry Johnson, Assistant State Superintendent, Division of Curriculum, Assessment and Accountability, to introduce the plan for implementation of the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS) in Maryland.

Dr. Johnson reported that Maryland was the fourth of eleven states and the District of Columbia, to adopt the NGSS in June, 2013. He provided documents with an overview of the updated Maryland Planning and Implementation Timeline, an updated form provided to LEAs by MSDE, and the NGSS Assessment Main Messages.
Dr. Johnson reported that Maryland’s Implementation Plan is “a living document” that will change over time and will be used to help structure and guide more detailed planning. He discussed Maryland’s preliminary timeline for implementation of NGSS beginning with school year 2013-2014 through 2017-2018.

Dr. Johnson introduced Judy Jenkins, Director of Curriculum, and Mary Thurlow, Coordinator of Science Programs, to further discuss the NGSS standards.

Ms. Jenkins reported that all work done on this implementation plan was done collaboratively with input from all stakeholders and that written updates were provided to all LEAs on a regular basis. She noted that three regional workshops were held for representatives of institutions of higher education to outline NGSS and what this would mean for pre-service education. She said the workshops communicated the importance of science education beginning with the youngest students.

Ms. Thurlow thanked Board members for the support provided to the Lead Team. She reported on the first NGSS Annual Leadership Meeting and discussed a Priority Report completed by this group. She provided a survey released to all LEAs to determine their NGSS progress. Ms. Thurlow also distributed a list of critical Maryland stakeholders who will work on the implementation of NGSS and discussed the NGSS assessment main messages.

In response to a question by Ms. Staton, Ms. Thurlow said that the NGSS assessments will be very similar to the Maryland School Performance Assessment Program assessments. She said “students will be scientists. There has to be a shift in instruction.”

Dr. Johnson reported that there are two summer conferences planned to roll out this system and standards to educators. He said, “We will introduce instructional shifts. The standards are all about engagement and exciting students about understanding science.”

Ms. Sidhu noted the importance of funding of tools needed by teachers in the classroom. Dr. Lowery responded that technology affords labs that are online.

Dr. Gates congratulated the presenters and stated that, “NGSS are unlike any that have been created in this country starting with how do people learn.”

Ms. Thurlow reported that all LEAs have begun to introduce NGSS through professional development (PD).

In response to a question by Ms. Eberhart, Dr. Johnson said that the workshops were held in conjunction with the certification team and that work is being done to make changes to teacher certification at the elementary school teacher level. Ms. Eberhart stressed the need for colleges to beef up science courses for elementary school teachers.

Ms. Eberhart expressed concern about the high cost of materials, science labs and professional development. Dr. Lowery agreed that assessing costs will be very important at the local level and that LEAs will have to examine how current funding can be used more effectively. Dr. Johnson said that quarterly surveys are being sent to LEAs to determine their funding needs.
In response to a question by Ms. Eberhart about testing, Ms. Thurlow said that there are three subcommittees working on testing at all three school levels and that subcommittee members will be gathering information from other states about this issue.

Dr. Dukes suggested that staff return to another Board meeting to answer additional questions expressed by Ms. Eberhart.

Ms. Thurlow provided an NGSS Implementation and Planning Document noting that the most important piece of this document is the ongoing statewide coordination and collaboration to support teachers, supervisors and administrators.

In response to a question by Ms. Staton regarding the preparation of other states for the NGSS, Ms. Thurlow said it is a timing issue with some states. Dr. Finan further explained that assessments are required within one year after standards are adopted and that some states are not prepared for assessments. Dr. Lowery noted that curricula are created by individual states since NGSS are merely standards.

Mr. Smith complimented the department for getting feedback. He said, “getting people to change – timing is key. We need to stress partnerships…use the same language and have everyone on board. We need to make sure that parents are aware.”

Dr. Lowery reported that representatives from other states call on Ms. Thurlow for her help due to the excellence of her work.

CURRICULUM UPDATE: COLLEGE, CAREER, AND CIVIC LIFE FRAMEWORK (SOCIAL STUDIES STANDARDS)

Dr. Lowery asked Dr. Johnson to continue with an update on a new College, Career, and Civic Life Framework (Social Studies Standards—C3). He asked Judy Jenkins and Dr. Marcie Taylor-Thoma, Coordinator, Social Studies Programs, to assist him in providing this update.

Dr. Johnson explained that more than 20 national organizations convened a work group to produce a document that would serve as a guide for states and school districts to use in the review or development of social studies standards. He provided a list of those organizations and reported that this was a three-year statewide effort in which Maryland was a lead state. He reported on the objectives, principles and dimensions of the framework.

Ms. Taylor-Thoma talked about the collaborative work among the many divisions of the MSDE and acknowledged the work of Board member Guffrie Smith for his valuable assistance. She discussed the following dimensions of the framework:

1. Developing questions and planning inquiries
2. Applying disciplinary tools and concepts
3. Evaluating sources and using evidence
4. Communicating conclusions and taking informed action
In response to a question by Dr. Dukes, Dr. Taylor-Thoma provided an example of a question students may be asked to answer.

In response to a question by Mr. Hodges, Dr. Taylor-Thoma explained that action plans include service learning projects for the community. Mr. Hodges urged that students be able to choose their service learning projects and Ms. Taylor-Thoma agreed.

In response to a question by Dr. Gates, Ms. Taylor-Thoma said, “We spent a lot of time around how kids learn. Kids learn better through their own curiosity. There is a lot of research to support this framework.”

Mr. Smith said, “We need to involve students to structure problems and become part of the solution. It is a different way of thinking - trying to get youth involved.”

In response to a question by Ms. Staton, Dr. Taylor-Thoma said students can go online to get additional information about social studies. She said, “We need to provide access to students who don’t have access.” Ms. Staton cautioned not to be over-dependent on technology. Dr. Johnson said that Dimension 4 provides students the opportunity to work collaboratively with other students.

In response to another question by Ms. Staton, Ms. Jenkins assured her that all resources are developed around the principles of Universal Design for Learning (UDL).

In response to a question by Mr. Naved, Dr. Taylor-Thoma explained that there are many opportunities to connect to world languages and cultures through this framework.

In response to a question by Ms. Eberhart, Dr. Taylor-Thoma reported that states are developing performance-based assessments and that four webinars have been held on assessment issues. Dr. Johnson said, “It is important to get out with a framework before looking at assessments. We will come back in a month to change COMAR to align with the new framework and then look at assessments.” Dr. Lowery said, “We do want to put timelines in but we need input from constituents.”

Dr. Gates expressed concern about the need to set standards. Dr. Taylor-Thoma explained that the current Maryland social studies standards will not change dramatically, but that the way social studies is taught needs to change.

Dr. Johnson said that staff will work to address all concerns of the Board.

Dr. Smith said, “As we come to you with new regulations, we will include an underpinning of mind/brain science.”

Dr. Dukes thanked the presenters and Board members for their valuable assistance in creating this framework.

The Superintendent introduced Dr. Darla Strouse, Executive Director, Partnerships and Development, to present this year’s Milken National Educator.

Dr. Strouse provided a background on the Milken Foundation noting that there have been fifty-eight Maryland recipients over the last twenty-one years.

She introduced Mr. Mark Miazga, an English teacher at Baltimore City College, noting that his classroom is, “a place where students understand what it means to be smart and think for themselves.” She reported that he has taught for thirteen years and takes special interest in gifted and talented students as well as those who lag behind. She noted that over the last three years he has taught International Baccalaureate (IB) classes and that his students have received a score of 4 or above. She introduced his principal, the CEO of the Baltimore City Public School System and the English Chair from his school and provided a video of the award ceremony.

Mr. Miazga said that receiving this award was, “One of the greatest moments of my life. I have a job that I really do love. Every day I feel like — today I can change the world! I try to make each student feel like the expert in the classroom. I am a symbol of all the great teaching that happens throughout the state.”

Mr. Miazga’s principal applauded his students’ performances on IB assessments and stated that his is well worthy of this award.

Dr. Dukes said, “We add our gratitude for the work you do every day. We are your new best friends because you exemplify what happens in Maryland.

Photos were taken and commemorative awards were presented to Mr. Miazga.

The President acknowledged members of the Maryland Association of Board of Education (MABE) who were in attendance. She also announced that two Maryland schools, North Carroll High School in Carroll County and Travilah Elementary School in Montgomery County were recipients of the 2014 Green Ribbon Schools Award.

FRAMEWORK FOR STATEWIDE SCHOOL DISCIPLINE PLAN

Dr. Lowery introduced Maria Lamb, Interim Assistant State Superintendent, Division of Student, School, and Family Support; and Walter Sallee, Interim Director, Student Services and Alternative Programs Branch, to provide an overview of the statewide plan to disseminate information and provide technical assistance to Maryland’s LEAs in the area of school discipline.

Ms. Lamb noted that the Board studied this issue for four years and provided a summary of the Board’s work. She distributed a chart listing the presentations to be made to the Board over the next several months which include:

- Student Records Manual
- Best practices in student discipline
- PBIS scale up
- A comparison of rates of school disciplinary actions for minority and special education students
- Maryland Guidelines for a State Code of Discipline.

She noted that new regulations will require LEAs to revise their discipline policies by next year.

Mr. Salle provided a depiction of a Framework for Statewide School Discipline Plan that will serve as a guide in the future. He said, “It is important to make sure schools are welcoming and safe.”

In response to a request by Ms. Eberhart, Ms. Lamb said that quarterly or monthly reports with real time data of disciplinary actions will be provided to the Board throughout the year.

RACE TO THE TOP (RTTT) UPDATE

Penelope Thornton-Tally reported that the Department has received some amendment approvals from the U.S. Department of Education (USDE) regarding certain RTTT projects. She introduced Mary Gable, Assistant State Superintendent, Division of Academic Policy and Innovation, to provide an assessment of the current status of the MSDE’s 54 RTTT projects.

Ms. Gable reported on the following projects:

• 4/3 Curriculum and formative assessment development
• 43/21 Develop online PD on educator instructional improvement content
• 17/32 Implement a test item bank system (TIBS)

In response to a question by Ms. Eberhart about linkages to LEAs on the blackboards, Zach Mangold, RTTT Project Manager, reported that large LEAs can load their information onto the blackboard and that they are working to enable all LEAs to do the same. Dr. Lowery noted that MSDE does not require LEAs to include their data but rather encourages them to share best practices. She said, “We now have a repository for them to share.”

STATE BUDGET AND LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

The Superintendent invited Kristy Michel and Dr. Michial Gill, Deputy Director for Governmental Relations, to provide a summary of the State budget and actions of the 2014 Maryland General Assembly.

Ms. Michel reported that MSDE did well in the Governor’s FY 2015 State Budget noting that $7.1 billion is earmarked for LEAs and that legislation was adopted to create special grants for LEAs with declining enrollments. She also reported that the budget includes $4.3 million for a pre-kindergarten initiative. Ms. Michel said that the budget includes salary increases for state employees and the loss of more than 150 positions in state government.

Dr. Gill reported that the legislative office tracked more than 377 bills introduced in the 2014 General Assembly and that of the five departmental bills, three were enacted. He reported that a bill to expand pre-kindergarten in Maryland passed and that the establishment of an Early Childhood Advisory Council was approved. Mr. Smith agreed to serve on the PARCC Implementation Review Workgroup. Dr. Lowery indicated that she would submit his name.

WAIVER REQUEST

Dr. Lowery introduced William Cappe, Specialist in Communications, to report on the waivers of the school year calendar that were granted. She said, "Mr. Cappe has done amazing work with the LEAs."

Mr. Cappe reported that each waiver request was individually considered and that efforts and modifications made by the LEAs were taken into account. He reported that a total of 25 waiver requests were received which included all 24 LEAs and the SEED School of Maryland and reported that he received many calls from parents about school calendars.

Mr. Cappe discussed a waiver request from the Superintendent of Wicomico County Public Schools to waive the final day needed to complete the 180-day schedule which occurs on a Monday.

Upon motion by Dr. Gates, seconded by Mr. Smith, and with unanimous agreement, the Board approved the waiver request for the Wicomico County Public Schools. (In Favor – 11)

Dr. Dukes thanked Mr. Cappe for being so thorough.

MSDE COMMUNICATIONS PLAN

Dr. Lowery introduced John White, Chief of Staff, to brief the Board on the new MSDE communications plan.

Mr. White discussed the rationale for why communication change is needed and elaborated on the following goals for the next two years:

1. Improve internal communications
2. Establish brand
3. Educate external audiences to strengthen support

Mr. White provided the objectives to meet those goals and discussed the analysis of the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats to meeting those goals. Mr. White also discussed key actions to be taken and provided a metric to measure success over the next year.

Dr. Dukes thanked Mr. Hodges for his help in developing this plan.

Dr. Lowery stressed the need to tell the truth in all communications, regardless of its negative or positive effect, and noted that regional meetings will be held to disseminate this communication plan.
Dr. Smith reported that a discussion will take place on May 5, 7, 8 and 12 around the state to discuss the Teacher/Principal Evaluation (TPE) System as well as a fifth meeting to be held in Baltimore City. He said that the Board will be kept apprised of information gleaned from these meetings.

Mr. White reported that the Council of Chief State School Officers (CCSSO) will be bringing chiefs from around the country to Washington, D.C. to hold a panel discussion on the Common Core Standards.
